PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

I am a hardworking, ethical and reliable journalist who is seeking the opportunity to apply my skills in the media industry. My recent experience as the television journalist at WIN News Riverina (Australia), news media company, Stadtic Media, and with radio station UCFM has contributed to my growing portfolio of published works across a range of stories in politics, sports, crime, human interest, and music. I have completed a Bachelor of Journalism and Arts in International Studies and I am looking forward to developing my career further. I am open to new experiences across the media industry in the UK.

Career gap to relocate from Australia to UK July 2022—October 2022

BUSINESS EXPERIENCE

Jan 2022—Jul 2022

Win News
TV Journalist

Role and Responsibilities—

My role as the journalist for Win News Riverina, has equipped me with a growing repertoire of published pieces and growth in my communication skills across a range of journalism fields including politics, sports, crime, health and human interest. I was tasked with writing and producing a minimum of four stories per day across these fields.

- Using my industry experience, researching stories from a range of sources and pitching stories relevant to the WIN News Riverina audience
- Working with camera crews to ensure consistent and efficient recording
- Independently conducting interviews and collecting vision for stories
- Independently writing and recording television news packages and RVO's (scripts)

Oct 2021— Apr 2022

Stadtic Media
Print Journalist

Role and Responsibilities —

Whilst working within the Stadtic Media team, I was tasked with writing for several Australian newspapers. This meant traveling throughout the State to find stories, and form relationships with new people including the police, healthcare officials and politicians. The position allowed me to write both long form, and short form articles in fields such as human interest, politics, crime, health, sport and education.

- Researching stories from a range of sources across New South Wales
- Conducting interviews
- Writing print and digital content for several Australian newspapers
- Social media content production

Apr 2021—Jan 2022

UCFM

Music Journalist

Temporary contracts—intermittent

Role and Responsibilities—

My position as a music journalist at UCFM has allowed me to develop knowledge of how radio journalism operates. In this role I have focused on using the UCFM platform to share the stories of local and nationally recognised musicians from around Australia. This position has encouraged me to enhance my interviewing and writing skills to produce engaging articles and radio news stories.

- In depth research of musicians, music festivals and events
- Interviewing musicians
- Creating engaging radio stories
- Writing engaging articles published on UCFM website
- Social media content production

Jan 2020– Oct 2021

Charles Conder Primary School

Learning support assistant

Roles & Responsibilities —

My role as a Learning Support Assistant required me to support students with their academic development, social and emotional learning, behaviour regulation as well as supporting teachers in the delivery of high-quality programs. This requires effective communication skills, flexibility, resilience, empathy, and compassion

Jun 2017– Jul 2019

The National Australia Day Council

The Australian of the Year Awards Position: Awards Coordinator (Communications & Media)

Role and Responsibilities—

My role in managing and researching State and Territory recipients for the Australian of the Year Awards, enhanced my investigative skills as I researched and interviewed individual applicants for the Australian of the Year Award categories. I worked closely with nominees and recipients, enriching my communication skills, coordinating media appearances and organising travel and accommodation requirements.

2017-2018

Anglicare Disability Services

Support Worker

Role and Responsibilities—

In the role of a support worker at Anglicare, I expanded my skills surrounding patience, flexibility, empathy, and personal care, whilst looking after clients with disabilities. This position required problem solving, effective communication and teamwork.

2015- 2018

Hungry Buddha, Curtin

Manager

Role and Responsibilities—

As manager, Hungry Buddha required me to lead and manage a team and provide a high level of customer service in a fast- paced environment. These skills will be very beneficial to me in a journalism position, as teamwork and the ability to work in a busy environment is essential in the workplace.
